

countrywidemedia

official publishers since 1998

Dear Controllers,

This letter has been written to inform you of the relationship between Countrywide Media and the NSW SESVA.

Countrywide Media are the official publishers of The Volunteer Journal and the NSW SESVA Wall Calendar. In order to fund these initiatives Countrywide Media contact local businesses in the area to seek support.

The businesses that agree to support the NSW SESVA are allocated a certain amount of space in the Journals and/or Calendars depending on the amount they contribute.

If you receive any phone calls from businesses questioning legitimacy, you are able verify that we are in fact working together. To assist you in verifying that the caller is from Countrywide Media:

Please note the following:

- Our callers will clearly identify themselves as being from Countrywide Media and represent the NSW SESVA.
- Our callers do not specify an individual Unit that will benefit.
- Our callers do not say funds will go direct to Units.
- Our callers will not be rude and hang up on potential clients

If there are any queries regarding this, feel free to contact Tony Cornish on (03) 9937 0200.

Yours Sincerely,

Tony Cornish

Director – Countrywide Media
